* Lead Line Reserved for children who need to be lead through the pattern. No exhibition or practice rides.

Once a child is able to control a horse on their own, off the lead line, they are no longer eligible for this event/class and they are eligible to move up to either the Novice Youth or Youth division. Once the rider advances, their Lead Line points will remain in Lead Line, but their rider participation count will follow them to the Novice Youth or Youth class. If the rider competes in the Lead Line class, they cannot compete in the Open, Youth, or Novice Youth classes at the same time. There will be no points awarded for this division, but runs will be recorded. The child must enter in a minimum of 8 Thursdays to qualify for year-end prizes.

** Novice Youth class is reserved for children with little or no experience in competition. If the Novice Youth runs a time within the competitive youth division (time falls between 1D 1st place through last paying D time) three (3) times, they must move up to Youth; but their Novice Youth points will remain in Novice Youth. If the rider competes in the Novice Youth class, they cannot compete in the Open or Youth classes.

With payment of the exhibition / entry fee, the rider / parent of a child under 18-years of age, agree, acknowledge, and will abide by the Attica Rodeo & Show Association, Inc., Barrel Racing rules as posted on www.atticarodeo.com, social media, and at the rodeo grounds.
